Welcome Message

Dear Participants,

The organizing committee is delighted to welcome you to the 20th edition of the CS Games. This year, the committee invites you to embark on an adventure powered by imagination.

We look forward to sharing this exciting experience with you.

The CS Games 2025 Organizing Committee

Theme

When they left in 2018, the Space Penguins left behind a few forgotten relics from the past: Lego pieces.

Six years later, a few students from Université Laval stumbled upon these curious objects, which would soon change their lives.

These objects quickly revealed their true power: the ability to transform ideas into tangible realities, bring fantastic worlds to life, and push the boundaries of innovation. Their inner child, long buried under the weight of studies and responsibilities, blossomed once more.

Inspired by this discovery, they embarked on a quest to share the good news: the return of imagination in a gray world.

Each evening also has a specific theme, so plan your best costumes! The themes are detailed on the next page.

Party

Each evening, parties are organized at the hotel. Alcoholic and non-alcoholic beverages will be provided. Each night also has a specific theme, so you are encouraged to dress in a themed costume.

Friday : Secondary characters

In the shadows of heroes, but essential to the story, side characters take the spotlight for one evening. 🌟🎭

Saturday : Arcade

One last life, one last level... Pixels, neon lights, and arcade classics for a night full of nostalgia and fun. 📍🎮

Sunday : Sleepy Games

Put on your best pajamas and dive into a night where dreams come to life. An intense evening lasting until dawn. ✨☁️🌙

Inclusive Event

Inclusion and diversity are of great importance to the CS Games. One of the main objectives of this competition is to strengthen its commitment to the community, creating an environment where every student, regardless of their orientation and/or identity, can feel comfortable and safe. Each person's preferred pronouns are displayed on their badge to facilitate integration into the competition.

Sexual Violence Prevention

Consent

Consent is invalidated by:

- Fear of retaliation,
- The presence of threats,
- The influence of drugs, alcohol, or loss of consciousness,
- The use of a position of authority to obtain sexual contact.

Active witnesses

Active bystanders are able to recognize sexual violence and take action to stop it. To intervene, one must analyze the situation, assess the level of danger, and respect their own limits and personality. There are four main ways to intervene:

- Support the victim or survivor
- Create a distraction
- Confront the person committing the sexual violence
- Delegate or ask someone else for help
